

Resilience in small-scale food production

3rd of May 4-6 PM (Baltic time)

We invite you to a webinar where we will listen to interesting examples of entrepreneurs that work with new ways of local food production. We will see examples of how you can add additional values to local food production and discuss short supply-chains and community action.

Register here:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZUtdOGurDotEtcLZWYt3fozOE7v12Xgg_7h

AGENDA

4 PM	Introduction Emma Mattila, Upplandsbygd CLLD
4.15	Good things come in small packages Maarja Pikk mets – Project manager. Kodukant Läänemaa - Estonia
4.30	Bussahagen Valera och Vasilika - Leader NV Skaraborg – Sweden ”Bussahagen Vegetables is a small farm in the middle of the woods where we grow with joy and consideration for nature and sell locally.

4.45	Bobrunna Gård Elin – Upplandsbygd CLLD - Sweden Bobrunna farm is a small organic farm of three hectares in Vattholma. Since 2017, we have been building a permaculture farm with vegetable cultivation, beekeeping, ducks and laying hens.
5 PM	Mazburkas Liga Bubko - Rural and the Sea - Latvia Small Toscana in Latvia . Biological Farm with grapes and wine.
5.15	Home made Icecream Lelde Sotniece Skriveri Home-made ice-cream Aizkraukle - Lativa
5.30	Reko-Ring in Ravakka. Heidi - Leader Ravakka Finland
5.45	Information about the conference in Sweden 23-26 of may-	TRANSITION TOWARDS RESILIENT COUNTRYSIDES  